Sourcing Essays' Text Citations: These are shown in shorthand form by bracketing the author's initials. When author has more than one work, the following number indicates which work. For multi-volume works, Roman numerals (e.g., ii) indicate volume number. The page number referred to in an author's text follows the comma. Thus, for example, page 200 in Churchill's "The Second World War", Volume 1 ("The Gathering Storm"), would be shown as: (WC4i, 200).
